Attention speech-language therapists (logopedists):
To assist the consumer in locating individuals knowledgeable in cluttering and the treatment of this disorder, the ICA has decided to provide a list of clinicians with their contact information on a Self-Referral List on the website. In order to be on the list, the clinician should be prepared to answer the following consumer questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How much knowledge do you have on cluttering based on university coursework, professional workshops or research?</li> <li>• What perspectives do you have regarding the nature of cluttering?</li> <li>• How much experience have you had with the diagnosis of cluttering?</li> <li>• What do you consider to be some differential indicators between stuttering and cluttering?</li> <li>• How much experience have you had in the treatment of cluttering? With what success?</li> <li>• What, in your judgment, contribute to the success of cluttering therapy</li> <li>• What, in your experience, are factors that may limit successful treatment? What do you do as a speech-language pathologist to try to reduce the influence of these delimiting factors?</li> <li>• What age groups have you worked with in treating cluttering?</li> <li>• What therapy goals do you consider important for treating cluttering?</li> <li>• What is a typical therapy session like for a child (e.g., activities, duration)? For teens and adults?</li> </ul>
<input type="checkbox"/> Yes. I give the ICA permission to include my name and email address on the self-referral list on ICA website. If at any time you wish your name to be removed from the website, please contact me at ebennett@elp.rr.com.
<input type="checkbox"/> No. I am not interested in being listed.
